Important Information About Opening a New Account
To help the government fight the funding of terrorism and money laundering activities, Federal Law required all financial institutions to obtain, verify, and record information that identifies each person who opens an account. What this means to you: When you open an account, we will ask for your name, address, date of birth, and other information that will allow us to identify you. We may also ask to see your driver's license or other identifying documents.

I/We hereby make application for membership in Matadors Community Credit Union (MCCU) and agree to conform to the bylaws and truth in savings agreement and disclosure, and any amendments thereof. I/We certify that the above information is true and correct and that I/We authorize MCCU to verify any of the information given, including credit references and employment and to obtain credit reports (including your spouse's if you live in a community property state). I/We agree that the amounts in this account may be applied against any present or future overdrawn account or delinquent loan of either the primary member or joint owner.

Please include a copy of your current Driver's License.
